DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-38 are pending in the instant application.

Election/Restriction

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-17, 35-38 drawn to nucleic acids, host cells comprising nucleic acids and methods of detecting nucleic acids, classified in class 435, subclass 6.
- II. Claims 18-24, drawn to polypeptides, classified in class 530, subclasses 300 and 350.
- III. Claims 25-34, drawn to methods of producing a fine chemical, classified in class 530, subclass 412.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are chemically, biologically, structurally and functionally distinct from each other and thus one does not render the other obvious. The proteins of Group II are not required to produce the nucleic acids of Group I (i.e. the nucleic acids can be replicated in vectors without use of the proteins) and the nucleic acids of Group I are not required to produce the proteins of group II (which can be produced synthetically or isolated from cells).

Art Unit: 1635

Inventions I, II and III are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the fine chemicals can be made by another and materially different process (purified from cells using an array of separation or purification techniques or chemically synthesized).

Claims 1-38 are drawn to nucleotide and amino acid sequences, nucleotide and amino acid constructs, and/or methods requiring the use of nucleotide or amino acid sequences or constructs that contain more than one individual, independent, and distinct nucleotide or amino acid sequence in alternative form. Accordingly, these claims are subject to restriction under 35 U.S.C. § 121 as outlined in 1192 O.G. 68 (Nov. 19, 1996).

Applicant is required to select no more than one of the individual sequences for examination. The search of no more than one selected sequence may include the complements of the selected sequence and, where appropriate, may include subsequences within the selected sequence (e.g., oligomeric probes and/or primers, or peptides).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 1635

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(I).
